School's rules

- Every student must carry his Almanac or school diary to school every day. In case it is lost, it should be reported to the class teacher immediately and a new almanac should be obtained.
- The students are always expected to set standards of good conduct and politeness in the school, in the buses and at public places.
- The students are expected to maintain discipline in the school premises. However if they defy the rules, they would be given a warning through the issue of cards of different colors viz white-1st warning, yellow-2nd warning and red-strict action/punishment. Red card would indicate strict action against the students.
- Students shall attend the school on time and in clean and a proper uniform as prescribed. Improperly or shabbily dressed students will be sent back home. Wearing of I-Card is compulsory.
- During the absence of the teacher from the class, students should be under the discipline of the monitor till the arrival of the teacher.
- All students must be in their respective seats before the teacher enter the class.
- The students are expected to set a standard of polite manners and good conduct wherever they go. They should always remember that the school is judged by their conduct. They should always greet their teachers and elders whenever they meet them.
- No student shall leave the classroom without the 'Class Pass' and permission of the teacher/monitor.
- Students moving along the corridors or during the change of period, must walk in silence, in an orderly manner, without pushing or shoving, in a single line.
- No student shall remain in the class room during the morning assembly, library period, P.T.period etc. without permission of the teacher concerned.
- Irregularity in attendance, continuous unsatisfactory academic progress, irregularity in assignment submission, indiscipline, disrespectful behavior towards teachers, bad moral influence, willful damage to the school property, lack of attendance, absence from class without proper application from the parent, truancy, delay in payment of the school fees and dues will be sufficient reasons for removal of student's name from the school rolls.
- Students are expected to keep themselves so prepared and up to date in their studies that they could sit for any test and examination any time without notice. This is not difficult if they are regular in their lessons and complete their homework on time. They should always seek the help of subject teachers in case of difficulty in the subject.
- It will not be appreciated, if the students absent themselves a day or two before the tests or exami9nations for preparing their lessons. Students who are regular in their studies do not need to absent themselves in the manner.
- Students should return their Progress Report Cards duly signed by their parents within five days of the receipt of the card.
- Care must be taken of all school property and each other's property. No students should scratch or spoil the desks or chairs, damage or misuse any school property, write or draw on the walls in any way damage things belonging to others. Damage done by anyone should be reported at once. Any damage
